More on Who We Are

GC is a ministry established back in the summer of 2007 appointed to minister to the nations through song, via musical concerts, workshops, community service activities and outreach.

Through conferences, crusades, revivals, musical concerts, workshops and seminars this ministry thrives on expressing that God is able to meet the needs of the people. GC takes initiative to show others that God has purpose and destiny for their lives. The vision that God has commissioned this group is to make a difference and reach out to those hurting, in bondage whether physically, mentally or spiritually. While their hearts pour out for the next generation (youth), the ministry has no age limits. Their sole purpose is to share and encourage other that no matter what they have experienced in their past, God has a bright future ahead of them if they only put their trust in HIM and believe that HE is a burden bearer, heart fixer, mind regulator and deliverer.

God's Chozen

Based out of Tampa, FL, God's Chozen (more commonly known as GC) brings forth powerful lyrics and unique sounds through thought provoking songs. By fusing urban and traditional gospel with flavors of rock and pop, the ensemble manages to capture audiences of all denominations and races. Comprised of gifted singers and students of the Gospel, Emile Davis (CEO and lead), Alecia Davis (wife to Emile), Makeda Dubose, Tanasha Whiting, Deon Lewis, Eric Bostic and Elijah McCloud, GC has successfully garnered the support of countless ministries.

This newly formed group released their debut album, "Take Off Your Mask", worldwide in August 2009. By merging their passion for God with singing the Gospel in an innovative way, they managed to gain the attention of an urban radio station and one of the nation's most read newspaper companies, Times Publishing.

Their sound provides faint resemblances of influential artists such as Michael Jackson, POD, Toby Mac, Sam Cooke, Kirk Franklin, Israel Houghton, William Murphy, Mercy Me, Dietrick Haddon, Rance Allen, and Chris Tomlin. There is no surprise that by being inspired by such artists the group is able to minister in various venues and relate to diverse crowds. However, merely standing before audiences and delivering flawless notes is not what drives the group to push forward with their music. GC continuously seeks to use their platform to help break audiences from all forms of bondage, fear, anxiety, hurt, and pain. Sports apparel company Obscurity to Greatness (OTG) immediately recognized their stance on being an encouraging light for the world. This was cause enough for OTG to make GC one of its spokes models for advertising its fashion line.

With long term goals to create a safe haven for the broken, to assist others in developing and honing their artistic ministry gifts, GC is determined to answer God's Call.

Debut project released Aug '08
